Brice had got the best of Mr. Inman vin S. Brice had got the best of Mr. Inman and his friends. Sevaral conferences were held to-day of the members of the opposition to the Inman party in the Richmond Terminal, but there was no formal action taken. Chairman Olcott, of the stockholders' committee, intimates that some steps may be taken to-morrow and a report was current that President Inman had tendered his resignation and would step out at once if it was accepted. When questioned by a reporter, Mr. Imman said he had nothing to say about the affairs of the company as i begged to be excused. It was also reported that the bankers' committee appelinted at the annual meeting of the Sichmond Terminal stockholders had decided to make no turther efforts to effect a reorganization of the company and that a formal announcement to that effect would be made by them to-morrow.

A QUESTION.

The question was raised by many to-day why General Thomas did not come to the rescue of the Terminal property before, instead of allowing it to pass to the outside committee, in so-during which his proxies to President Imman were undoubtedly used. The following apparently inspired answer was given by a representative of Rast Tennessee interests: "General Thomas is not an executive officer of the Richmond Terminal. He is only an officer of the East Tennessee. He had no interest in stepping to the front in Richmond Terminal matters. He was secured in his position in East Tennessee and that was all he cared to risk. He has insisted steadily that his property needed the help of no outside interest. The directors of the company represented $15,000,000 of the property and could see it through its difficulties. He has resented the attempts of the Terminal management to involve East Tennessee in its troubles. He will continue to resist these colors. So far he has been successful. It must be understood that the East Tennessee interests are opposing only those stiempts which aim to involve Hast Tennessee. There is nothing personal about it. Mr. Brice stated distinctly last evening that he and General Thomas were not opposed to Mr. Imman as president of the Richmond Terminal. TIES at such LOW PRICES as WE quote

A RUMOR DESIGE.

It was rumored in financial circles that the real purpose of General Thomas in this struggic was a union of the East Tennessee and Norfolk and Western to the exclusion of the Richmond and Danville and the exclusion of the Richmond and Danville and the exclusion for the Richmond Torminal system General Thomas denied the report this afternoon. He said that the new move had for its sole object the preservation of the Richmond Torminal system in its enurety. BETTER THAN THE PRICE.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET. New York, December 16.-The stock market to-day was again moderately strong, with specially wide movements in a few stocks, while the fact that the buying was more than usually of late made up of commission dealings rendered the value of business not so large, though footing up a respectable figure.

STRENGTH SYLL A FRATURE.

The ease with which the market took a lot of 2,000 New York Central, which afterward recovered to last night's price, shows that the underlying strength of the situation has not been exaggerated, while a few stocks, which developed large speculative trading, were specially prominen in the rise. In the early dealings lock Island and Chicago Gas were very conspicuous in this class, but the recent advance in the divilend rate on the former has not yet ceased to affect the movements of the stock. The latter was also helped by the statement for November, though its movements are more the result of speculative methods than of legitimate demand.

NORTHERN PACIFIC AND THE GRANGER.

Cotton-Convicts at Work. expondence of the Richmond Dispatch.1

Washington, December 16.—The Department of Agriculture makes the following announcement:

An improvement of general public interest is being introduced into the Weather Bureau. The predictions heretofore made were based on the observations at 8 A. M. and 8 P. M. and were made for the twenty-four hours from the time the observations were taken. These predictions were necessarily a little briated, as it was several hours before they could be placed before the public. Those published in the morning papers were for a time which had already nearly half expired, and for the evening papers the case was still worse, as the portion of the time covered had arready clapsed for which the predictions were of most value. The proposed improvement consists in having the predictions in each case cover the time until midnight of the next day. When this time until midnight of the predictions printed in the morning papers will appear early in the day to which they apply, while those in the evening papers will appear early in the day to which they apply, while those in the evening papers will be for the day after. The public will be informed on the evening papers will be given an improved forecast the next morning, if improvement is needed. By this plan the needs of the public will be more fully met. The forecasters are also emouraged to predict for the second or third day in advance whenever they they think the state of the weather will justify them in doing so. The privilege of doing this was given them two years ago, and they have more and more taken advantage of this liberty until now such forecasts are very common. A NEGRO SHOOTING AFFRAY. Washington, December 15.—The Postwill say to-morrow: Representative Culberson, of Texas, has again declined the position of Interstate Commerce Commissioner. It was for this reason that the nominations for the vacancies in the commission were not sent to the Senate to-day. As previously stated, Judge Culberson was offered the commissionership by the President early last summer, but declined it. A few days ago, yielding to pressure, he informed the President that if his name had been sent in he would accept the office. As his name had not been sent in Mr. Culberson took occasion to revert to his former decision and again declined the office.
